Dear Sir

OUR CLIENT: CHURCH STRETTON GOLF CLUB LIMITED

As you know, we act for Church Stretton Golf Club Limited ('our Client').

Our Client has made contact with us following the various interactions you have had with them over the past week.

Despite our Client's best efforts to explain their position to you, you continue to refuse to accept that you are not an Honorary Life Member of our Client. They consider you to be a non-member of their club so you are bound by all the rules and procedures expected of non-members, including (but not limited to) payment of green fees in order to play their course.

When they try and assert their position, it is met with a volume of correspondence from you, which our Client now considers to be vexatious. The final straw was your conduct on 31 May 2021 when our Client's Club Secretary requested green fees from you.

That said, in light of the manner of your behaviour and correspondence, our Client has taken the decision to ban you from their club and associated facilities. This ban is effective immediately. Please do not come onto their premises. If you do, you will be requested to leave.

Please be absolutely clear, our Client's actions are in no way designed to punish you for any previous claims you have brought against them. However, the manner in which you conduct yourself has led them to conclude that banning you is the only sensible resolution for all parties.

As you have been banned from our Client, please refrain from sending any further correspondence to them.

You are free to take your own advice about the content of this letter should you not be happy with the decision our Client has made.

Yours faithfully
